JUDE

```
Bm7
                                      G
1.
           I'm safe in the hands of the one who can hold me,
                            D/F#
                                          Bm
           The one who can keep me from falling away.
                       Bm7
                                 G
           I know I am saved, his word reassures me
                            Em7 Asus4 A
                                               D D/G D/B Asus4 D D/G D/B Asus4
           As I walk with the Lord,
                                         day by day.
                            Bm7
                D
                                        G
2.
           I'm called by the Father, I am loved by my God,
                       D/F# Bm
           I am kept by Jesus Christ
                           Bm7
                                    G
                                                D/F#
           One day he'll present me, faultless before him,
                           Em7 Asus4 A
                                                            D
                                                                  D
           To the God of all ages, the source of all life.
                 D/C# G/B A7sus4
Chorus:
          I will wait, I will pray,
                 D/F#
                                       Em7
           I will keep myself in God's love day by day.
                             Bm7/A
           I will trust in the mercy of Jesus Christ
              Em7 Em7 A7sus4 A7sus4 D D/G D/B Asus4 D D/G D/B Asus4 to eternal life.
           To bring me
                                     Asus4 A
                            D Bridge:
           God my Saviour, Christ my Lord.
           Glory, power and majesty are yours.
                   G
           God my Saviour, Christ my Lord.
                                                  Α
           Glory, power and majesty are yours.
                    D D/G D/B Asus4 D D/G D/B Asus4
```

For evermore